PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

GREAT TRUNK LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE.

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

Construction and Equipment
THE

THE SAFETY APPLIANCES

in use on this line well illustrate the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not the cost bears the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER and PLATFORM
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH, AND THE WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

THE SCENERY

OF THE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

TESTIMONIALS:

PROLAPSUS UTERI (Falling of the Womb.) A Wonderful Cure.—Nine years my wife suffered with this terrible complaint. She was attended by doctor after doctor, went to five different hospitals where females are treated; tried them all; wore bandages and pessaries with only temporary relief. Her life was miserable. We applied Dr. Giles' Liniment. Her relief was immediate. She is now well.

BROCKWAY & ELWELL, Editors.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday, Nov. 22, 1878.

Gov. Hartranft announces Thursday, the 28th day of November, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

Stanley Woodward thinks Hoyt will be the next republican candidate for president. It would be a satisfaction to Mr. Woodward's numerous friends to know exactly where he does stand. We believe he pretends to be a democrat-he figured prominently in the lobby of the national state convention to secure the nomination of Mr. Mason, and finally turned up as a supporter of General Hoyt for governor.—Pottsville Chronicle.

Sale of a Newspaper by the Sheriff.

SHENANDOAH CITY, November 15.—The Shenandoah Herald, the only greenback paper in Schuylkill county, was advertised to be sold by sheriff's sale on Monday, November 18. The Herald, has been in bad shape for some time, but was kept up to plead the greenback cause until after the election. On the day following election the bills announcing the sale were posted. The paper will continue issuing, but the management will be changed. It will remain a "soft money friend." T. J. Foster is its present editor and proprietor.

CHAIRMAN SPEER.

We do not know that he is wholly to blame for the conduct of the last campaign, but he showed a wonderful lack of leadership, and called around him for assistance a set of fossils whose experience of a campaign was based upon a series of ignoble defeats. We had excellent candidates Better management has elected worse. We had a good platform, and it reflected the views of a majority of Pennsylvania's voters. But our astute political managers selected as conductor of the campaign a man who carried into the canvass his hatred of the men who objected to his salary grabbing vote, as a member of Congress, and who almost unanimously rejected him as Chairman of the Democratic Convention at Wilkes-Barre in 1874.

The conduct of the campaign was thoroughly imbecile. Our financial position as a party was rendered uncertain by Speer's own speech. The heavy Democratic vote between the Susquehanna and Delaware was unaided by the State Committee and left to inefficient local committees. The lunate Democracy of a few counties survived the wreck, but no thanks were due to the Speer-Dieffenbach leadership. In a word, a prepared victory was ruined by incompetent management. The soldiers were more faithful than their general.

State Appropriations to Common Schools.

At the meeting of the Lancaster county teachers' institute Prof. Wickersham delivered a lecture relative to his recent European trip, after which he was asked to give the reason why the state appropriation of $1,000,000 has not been distributed among the several school districts. The professor replied that the reason was because there was no money in the state treasury. Two hundred thousand dollars had been distributed some time ago and $100,000 more recently among the districts that had first made their official reports; $700,000 is still due and will be distributed as soon as the money can be obtained. The state revenues it must be remembered, have greatly fallen off; many corporations have failed to pay their taxes on account of the hard times. Dr. Wickersham said he could draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the money due the school districts, but to do so would be no more use than it would be for a man to draw his check on a bank in which he had no funds.

The Intelligencer says the doctor's explanation did not seem to satisfy the directors, who shook their heads and seemed to wonder how this could be thus under a beneficient republican rule, an "honest money" administration, which claimed to have been so economically administered, and to have made such sweeping reductions of the public debt. Then they thought of that clause in the constitution which says the legislature shall provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public schools and "shall appropriate at least $1,000,000 each year for that purpose." If the legislature has done its duty why are there no funds in the state treasury for the school purposes?

The Coming Legislature.

Who is to be Speaker—The Discussion of the Other Positions at Harrisburg.

The Pittsburg Telegraph speculates as follows: Hon. Robert S. Frazer, who was urged by some of his friends to enter the contest for the speakership of the next house at Harrisburg, has withdrawn in favor of Henry M. Long, and the latter will have the united support of the Allegheny county delegation. Knowing ones predict that Henry will make the riffle. Benjamin L. Hewitt, of Blair county, who wants to wield the gavel has no local strength, having a Democratic colleague and being surrounded by Democratic counties, and although he has the favor of the house of Cameron will hardly succeed. Lish Davis will be the choice of Philadelphia, and as he is a former resident of Venango county, may have some support in the northwest. The doughty Davis will, however, doubtless have to stand aside for the man and "brother-in-law" from Allegheny. Dr. W. C. Shrlock will be continued in the place he so acceptably filled last winter. Dr. W. H. Bradley, of Wilkesbarre, wants to succeed himself as reading clerk, but will have opposition. In the senate, Thomas B. Cochran is secure for chief clerk, notwithstanding the gossip to the effect that the white plumed Harry Huhn had been promised the place. Some of the friends of E. W. Smiley, reading clerk, are anxious about his fate and have gone to see Mackey, Quay and the other great lights in the east about it, but it is to be hoped that Smiley will not be "unslated" as he is one of the most intelligent, capable and courteous officers of the legislature.

PANAMA, Nov. 7.—The Valley of the Cauca, one of the most fertile and popular portions of the Republic has suffered fearfully from the incursions of grasshoppers. All of the growing crops have been completely ruined. Sugar cane, corn and wheat in the upper portion of the valley, and all sorts of grasses, so that the cattle cannot subsist except in a half starved condition. The prices of provisions of all classes are exorbitantly high, and as the sugar estates and large haciendas have suspended work the poor are unable to purchase the necessaries of life. The Government, with a view of furnishing them with the means of support, is pushing the construction of the Cauca Valley Railroad, which will give employment to thousands.

TO THE PUBLIC.

[Concluded.]

I shall not attempt to reply to the personal attacks made upon me since the election. The former ones did their work, and the men who did it should rest content. They were paid at the eleventh hour, and fully earned their wages.

The regularity of the Rowland call as to time, has been called in question. I have a telegram from Klotz that should settle the point, stating that the Conference would meet on Tuesday at 10 a. m.

THE "BEAMISH" CONVENTION.

I did not see Beamish or any spokesman for him, at the Scranton Convention. In fact I know that he wanted Buckalew nominated. The following dispatch speaks for itself:

Scranton, Oct. 16, 1878.

C. B. Brockway :—If you want Buckalew nominated, let me know at once.

F. A. BEAMISH.

To this I answered that Columbia would endorse him, if nominated at Scranton. In fact I suggested several compromise candidates, and a meeting of both conferences at Wilkes Barre, but Klotz would listen to no proposition that would not insure his election.

THE "TIMES" ATTACK.

The dispatch to the Times from Scranton, dated Oct. 28th, I have every reason to believe was manufactured in Philadelphia and not far from McClure's office. It is late in the day for Col. McClure to attack my Democracy. I was firm in that faith when he was rushing jobs through the lower branch of the Legislature when a member from Franklin, and he was then the servile tool of Simon Cameron. When Senator as now, he was the paid counsel of the Pennsylvania rail-road. I was faithful to my party during the war, when he and others were enriching themselves at the expense of the nation—a matter he could easily do on account of his close relations to Cameron and Curtin. The principles of my party, and its candidates I have steadily supported by voice and pen since boyhood. During the present campaign, none have been more zealous, nor worked harder for the whole ticket than myself. It therefore ill becomes a man of McClure's antecedents,—one who has no fixed principles of any kind to libel me in the interest of such men as Klotz; and I therefore pronounce every charge or insinuation against my party fealty to be utterly false and malicious.

THE MONEY QUESTION.

Whilst I believe that as a general rule it is nobody's business where I get my money or loan it, any more than Mason, Dill, Orvis, or Klotz, nor how I apply it, as some stress has been laid upon the question, the answer is simple. I needed some money to pay notes due in bank, and if nominated, campaign expenses. I borrowed $2,000,in Philadelphia from a friend,—gave him a judgment note,—assigned a judgment certified by Prothonotary Zarr, and pledged real estate in Conyngham and Locust held by me. That money was kindly held by Mr. Lowenberg, for me, except $100.00 for necessary expenses, until the Monday following the nomination. My nomination at Scranton cost me $89,50—being the expenses of the conferees and candidates at that sitting. They never asked for that, and received no more,—nor were promised more, except as to printing tickets; and the usual assessments for campaign purposes. Part of the money was used to pay notes held against me by our banks, and individual debts, as many gentlemen in this neighborhood can testify. The balance was used in paying assessments made in different counties, tickets, documents, halls, bands, traveling expenses, and other legitimate items incident to a campaign. Not one cent was ever paid or promised to any conferee, nor was a cent paid to any candidate or individual for any other purpose. The items of expenditure are open to the investigation of any one. In a word, I solemnly deny ever having received a cent from any person for political purposes, nor did I ever receive or have the promise of money for my action. Nor did any Republican in any way contribute a cent towards my election that I know of.

I may here add that I left Bloomsburg on Saturday noon of the Fair, and fully expected to return home that evening. My business was to look after some cases connected with my father's estate, and an attempt to compromise a suit on the Lycoming trial list, in which I am plaintiff. My trip to Philadelphia was mainly for the purpose of borrowing the money I succeeded in doing, as our banks would not discount me a note for that amount.

SPEER'S PRONUNCIAMENTO.

On the Saturday afternoon before the election,—just as I was starting to Danville to make a speech,—I discovered that dodgers were being printed at a Republican office, of which the following is a copy:

The following Telegram has been received from the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee:

Philadelphia, Nov. 1st., 1878.

D. Lowenberg, Boomsburg, Pa.

In my judgment it is the duty of every Democrat in your district to support Klotz for Congress. The candidacy of Brockway, is in the interest of the Republicans.

R. M. SPEER,
Chairman of State Committee.

This publication was intended to be sprung the following day, (Sunday), when it would be too late to counteract its influence. Justice to Mr. Lowenberg, demands that I should state that he refused to give G. A. Clark, the manager of the Western Union Telegraph at this place, the privilege of using it. He made the request in writing, but Clark declined. Using his knowledge of the existence of this message, on his own book, this newly discovered bright light of the Democratic Party, telegraphed Speer about it. Speer, without consulting the State Central Committee, gave speedy permission for Clark and other Klotz men, to use a private dispatch sent to another man Of course it was believed all over the County that Mr. Lowenberg sent it out, and therefore had his endorsement, and it certainly looked so. But the following, and similar letters were sent out by Bloomsburg's expectant Post Master, who thus prostituted his position as Secretary of the Democratic Standing Committee.

Bloomsburg, Pa. Nov. 2, 1878.

* * * and Others.—Dear Sirs:—I send you to-day a number of copies of telegram sent by R. M. Speer, to Mr. D. Lowenberg. The telegram explains itself. I am authorized by Mr. Speer to "make any and every use" of this telegram, "that will aid Klotz."

Yours respectfully
GEORGE A. CLARK.

So that in the crusade against Columbia's choice, Mr. Lowenberg's name was used without his consent, and Salary-Grabber Speer, authorized Clark to "make any and every use that will aid Klotz." "Any and every use," dishonorable or dishonorable, was made, to the loss of more votes for Dill, than Klotz has plurality. These circulars, with quarter-sheet posters, were circulated all over the District. Men who are church members desecrated the Sabbath to do their dirty work, by traveling all day, and by circulating the infamous lie that I had sold myself to the Republicans for $2,000.

Conspicuous among these was a certain Megargell who wished to have revenge because I had thrice defeated him for Congress in this County, besides some expectant nominees for Sheriff, &c.

These documents were circulated by Klotz's friends and hirelings on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in every election precinct in the District, when I had no opportunity to respond. It is a query with me how it was, that if Klotz was the regular nominee, and if Speer was convinced that I was working in the interests of the Republican party, it was not discovered until the eleventh hour, and that the virtuous Speer permitted me to do all the damage I could, as he intimated I was doing, until he was interviewed by Klotz or his friends. He decided the case without hearing me, or giving me notice, permitted me to stump the District for the Democratic ticket, and then, at the last moment, "was persuaded."

But by what right did he decide this contest? As Mr. Buckalew said, "his opinion was that of a mere individual." If he could go outside of his jurisdiction to determine ex parte this case, he could that of any other candidate. The Democratic party acknowledges no autocrat. Its nominations are made by the people, acting through delegates and conferees; and when so made, neither he nor any other tribunal can reverse or interfere with their verdict.

THE CROWNING INFAMY.

Not content with previous jobs, other low tricks were resorted to. On the night before, and the morning of the election, posters were put up in different portions of the District, that I had withdrawn in favor of Klotz! Even my brother in Luzerne at first believed it, but it was too late to contradict the lie in this wide District. Again, the same night, Klotz's hirelings went into numerous townships, and stole or bought up all tickets containing my name.

To those who so nobly stood by me in the face of detraction,' and despite State and local organizations, and the corrupt use of money and pledges, I tender my heartfelt thanks. I can only pity those who believed these slanders without giving me a chance to be heard. To those who so maliciously and falsely aided in this vile scheme, I have the utmost contempt. They will get their reward here, or hereafter.

C. B. BROCKWAY.

BEAMISH.

The Carbon Democrat and Philadelphia Times, both edited by Republicans, have been particularly coarse in the abuse of Frank Beamish for a time one of the conferees at the late Congressional Conference. If their attacks are prompted because of his prosecution and conviction in Luzerne, Col. McClure should remember the letters published by him from Judge Harding Col Woodward, and C. R. Buckalew. The following letter from the latter to the Times should have silenced McClure:

To the Editor of The Philadelphia Times:

I am placed by you at the head of the list of named persons "and others" who, imploring executive clemency for Mr. F. A. Beamish, of Luzerne county, have been, in your opinion, only too successful in their application, causing a virtuous Attorney-General to be overruled by his brethren of the Board of Pardons and by his official chief, the Governor of the Commonwealth. The exposure and denunciation of the wickedness of the times is a pious employment for the press not soon to be exhausted, and it will always yield a mournful satisfaction—perhaps sometimes genuine pleasure—to those who pursue it. But, in the present case, some errors of fact mar the artistic merit of the picture drawn by you for public contemplation. It is not true that Beamish was convicted of embezzlement of public moneys, and that his pardon was not asked for upon the grounds of innocence and an unjust conviction. Nor is it true that the strength of the application on his behalf consisted of suggestions of the distress of his family, the promotion of peace and order in Luzerne county and other political and humanitarian considerations recited in your correspondence from Harrisburg and Luzerne. Convicted of an offense which he never committed, his pardon was recommended by me and by others as an act of justice to him, and to decent and dutiful administration by the executive power of the state. It was believed that a pardon, which was virtually invited by the judge who sentenced him, who in pronouncing the sentence, and which would stand upon the solid foundation of justice, ought not to be withheld. Those recommendations, however, were made last year and had no connection with recent movements in the case by men who were formerly opposed to Beamish or indifferent to his fate. I am not advised as to their motives or the extent of their influences upon the result. But, be their conduct saintly or selfish, humane and honorable or otherwise, the merits of the case remain wholly unaffected.

But assuming the collection or blotter book to be the tax duplicate of the district, and its mutilation to be indictable at common law, the undisputed facts in the case gave a complete answer to the charge, for it was shown by the prosecution that the book was found in its usual place in an unlocked desk in the defendant's office, during his absence of some weeks in Florida; that the leaves torn from the book were lying beside it, unsecreted and uninjured, and that the office was a public place, daily, open, and a thoroughfare for access to one or more offices beyond it. The defendant was in a remote state—his office open to the whole world—the book where any one could do with it as he pleased—an active personal enemy in the next room—these were the circumstances under which the book was seized by the prosecutor and made the foundation of his complaint. And there was not an atom of evidence in the case to connect the defendant directly with the act of mutilation.

Fully informed upon the facts given in evidence upon the trial, and fully convinced of the defendant's innocence, I signed an unsolicited recommendation for a pardon. The pardon was just, and the only complaint to be made is that it was too long delayed.

C. B. BUCKALEW.

February 25, 1878.

WHO WOULDN'T BE A KING?

Attempts have been made to assassinate the Emperor William, and King Alfonso. Now comes the following dispatch:

NAPLES, November 16.—As King Humbert was entering this city in state to day a poorly clad man attempted to assassinate him with a poinard. Signor Cavioli, chief of the ministry, who was in the carriage with the king, laid hands on the man who wounded him in the thigh. The king drew his sword and struck the assassin, who was immediately secured. The king received a slight scratch. The popular indignation is intense and the demonstrations of loyalty are unbounded. The assassin is twenty nine years old and by occupation a cook. He says he belongs to no society but being poor nourished hatred towards the king.

Five Murderers to be Hanged.

AMONG THEM THE NOTORIOUS KEHOE, THE KING OF MOLLIE MAGUIRES.

Governor Hartranft has issued warrants for the execution of five murderers. Four of them belonged to the infamous Mollie Maguires, among them Jack Kehoe. All the culprits are to be hanged on the 18th of December.

The crime for which Kehoe is to hang was committed in 1862 and the victim was F. S. W. Langdon, a ticket boss employed at Honeybrook colliery. Langdon had docked a number of men, and for it Kehoe threatened to take his life. On the evening of the day of which a Sunday school celebration was held Langdon was found on the public road terribly beaten, and in a few days he died of the injuries received. For fourteen years the murderers went unpunished, but evidence was obtained through the first Mollie Maguire murder trials leading to the arrest of Kehoe and two of his accomplices, Dougherty and O'neal. Kehoe having threatened to have Langdon killed, and having been seen striking him, was convicted of murder in the first degree, and his confederates got off with nine years' sentence in penitentiary. Kehoe was connected with at least half a dozen murders committed in the coal regions.

Martin Birgin, who is to be hanged on the same gallows with Kehoe, shot Patrick H. Burns at Tuscarora, Schuylkill county in 1870. Burns was murdered at the instigation of John Kane, who employed James M Donnell, also to be hanged on the 18th of December for the murder of George K. Smith in 1863, to put Burns out of the way in order to prevent him from exposing a theft of coal by Kane. M'Donnell induced Birgin, who was arrested in Canada last March, to do the shooting. Burns was shot while going to work.

Cale Sape and James M'Donnell, both of whom will be hanged at Mauch Chunk on the 18th of next month, murdered George K Smith, a coal operator at Audenried on the night of November 5, 1863. Smith was killed because he gave the United States authorities information relative to the whereabouts of persons who evaded the draft. The men called at Smith's residence, and being admitted said they had a letter for him, which they desired to hand to him in person. Being informed that he had retired to bed, one of them made a motion as if he intended to hand the alleged letter to Mrs. Smith. Instead he drew forth a revolver, which was discharged. Mrs. Smith gave a loud scream, and her husband rushed down stairs in his night clothes. While on his way he was shot down by one of the ruffians. A man named Ulrich, who had gone to the house at the request of Smith, was shot in the leg The arrest of the two Mollies was mainly due to the revelations of the notorious Jimmy Kerrigan and Kelly the Bum, both of whom are self-confessed murderers Alexander W. Sayers, the Philadelphia wife murderer, is also to be hanged on the 18th of December. He shot his wife in church on Sunday, November 18, 1877, during the progress of the services.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. He has already served his constituency as State Senator, and this renewed endorsement signifies that his services have been highly satisfactory. His extensive practice in the treatment of Chronic Diseases will not, we are informed, be neglected or suffer in the least, when the time arrives for him to take his seat in Congress, it being intrusted to his brother and other experienced medical gentlemen who have long been associated with the Doctor in the Medical Department of his celebrated World's Dispensary and Invalids Hotel. Besides as the Forty-Sixth Congress does not convene until December, 1879, Dr. Pierce's patients will not lose his personal attention for some months yet.

Though the inquiry has been many times answered, it may be repeated that the drawer of a check who gets it certified and pays it out is held for it precisely as if there were no certification upon it. ## FATAL EXPLOSION AT MAHANOY CITY.

The little engine and parlor car "Gem," of the Reading railroad exploded at Mahanoy City on the afternoon of the 16th inst., killing five persons. The superintendent, J. H. Oilhausen, had just stepped out of the car in the depot when the shock came. Among the victims were George and Horace Hagenbuch, sons of Charles C Hagenbuch formerly of this place, and grandsons of the late Dr Ramsey. The two, with Willie Wenrich and Calvin Lutz, all boys between the ages of eight and twelve years, were found huddled on top of each other, between the depot and telegraph office, and were covered with debris When the explosion took place they were distributing handbills on the platform, about ten feet from the engine Young Lutz's father picked him up from the ruins, not knowing that it was his son, and began to wash the dirt and smoke from his face The little fellow moaned in agony He was taken home as soon as he was recognized by his parent and died two hours subsequently.

Horace Hagenbuch was badly cut. He scrambled out of the ruins and endeavored to find his brother. Covered with blood, he ran down town, and when his uncle caught him in his arms he cried, "Let me go; I can walk home. Go find George; he is hurt worse than I." His injuries are not fatal. His brother George, however, was terribly scalded. His head was lacerated and skull fractured. He lived two hours and a half. The whole top of Willie Wenrich's head was blown off. His body was badly disfigured and was unrecognizable. His brains bespattered the depot and his limbs were twisted up.

LIABILITY OF ROAD COMMISSIONERS.

The Supreme Court of this State has recently decided a case of interest to Road Commissioners and Supervisor. The case was appealed from the Common Pleas of Schuylkill county. The plaintiff brought suit to recover damages for the death of her husband, the same having been caused, as alleged, through negligence of defendants in not providing a safe road. The evidence was that where the accident occurred the road was barely of sufficient width to allow two vehicles to pass. A wagon was standing on one side of the road and on the other the end of a log protruded, and in attempting to drive between the two the husband of the plaintiff struck the end of the log and was thrown out and killed. In the court below a verdict was rendered against the township, which was appealed to the Supreme Court on the ground that, as the supervisors had let the road out for repairs to the lowest bidder, who had given bonds to fulfil his contract, that fact relieved the supervisors from responsibility, the bond having stipulated to save the township from all accidents. The court, however, decided against this view of the case and held the township liable on the general principal that if a jury believe a road to be unsafe for travel, let the cause be what it may, it is evidence of negligence and the township is responsible.—Ex.

The Gas Company of Springfield, Mass., have begun to heat buildings by the Holly system. The steam is carried 2,000 feet or more through under ground pipes. A number of those who are using the steam pronounce it a success. The Gas Company uses very little additional fuel to furnish the heat, and without any more extra fuel than they now use could heat twice as much radiating surface. The pressure on the street pipes is from twenty to twenty-five pounds, and it is believed the greater part of the city could be heated without increasing it to more than thirty pounds.

The time of the Lycoming county Court was occupied several days last week in the trial of a criminal case in which James W. Sankey of Lightstreet, and Samuel Sankey his brother of California, were defendants. The prosecution was for the alleged abduction of a little girl, a niece of the defendants, from Hughesville, where she had been living with another uncle. Samuel Sankey desired to adopt the child, whose parents were dead, and she was taken from the house of Mr Huling, the Hughesville uncle, without any attempt at secrecy. A verdict of "not guilty" was rendered late Saturday night.

A WOMAN'S LOGIC.

"It is useless to take medicine. I shall feel better to-morrow Besides, I need the money to get that lovely new hat. My old one is such a fright, and people will look more at my bonnet than they will at my face. I will wait till I feel worse before I spend any money for medicine." The new bonnet is purchased and fifty other feminine necessaries in the form of ribbons, laces, brooches, etc. Meanwhile the lady's face becomes every day paler and thinner, and her body weaker, until disease has gained so firm a foothold in her system, that the most thorough, and oftimes a long and tedious, course of treatment is necessary to restore her to health. Ladies, attend to your health before you even think of apparel. A fresh, blooming face in a plain bonnet is much handsomer and far more attractive to your gentlemen friends, than a pain worn, diseased face in the most elaborate and elegant hat your milliner could devise. Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription is everywhere acknowledge to be the standard remedy for female complaints and weaknesses. It is sold by druggists.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., Nov., 19 1878.

Many Congressmen are already here. The session begins in two weeks, and besides preparatory work of Committees, there is always something for members to do before the actual day of meeting. I fancy, too, that quite a number of repudiated Congressmen prefer, since the October and November elections, to be outside rather than inside their Districts. Conversation with the Democrats who have already arrived leaves no room for doubt that Mr. Randall will be the nominee for Speaker of the 46th Congress and will be elected. The growing importance of this office—an importance which can hardly be explained to one who has not watched legislation here for many years—calls early attention to the selection of a fit man. Mr. Randall is not exactly the ideal speaker, but his qualifications are greater than those of any other man in the house, and he has signally proven a capacity for improvement.

When the U. S. Steamer Huron was wrecked a few years ago, many bodies were not recovered or identified. One man, always supposed to have died, reported yesterday at the navy yard in this city. His wonderful story is that he was picked up after remaining in the water a whole day and night, and carried to a Norwegian port, and that he has since been in the hospital there. The Secretary of the navy and other officials are convinced that his story is true, and the money due him, which has already been paid to a person represented as his father, will be paid him.

The earnest attention of members of Congress from all the states is asked to the present condition of the District of Columbia on financial and other affairs. Your correspondent has no special scheme for a District Government, and will not now urge that the United States assume further responsibility for existing debt, but all will admit that those who are creditors of the District to the amount of twelve or fifteen millions have a right to know exactly what the responsibility of the Federal Government is in the premises. Citizens of the District, also, who find that under present laws their Governors are in continual conflict with other United States officers, to the great detriment of District business, have a right to at least an official inquiry into the cause of never ending disagreement. Denied representation in every form, the District tax payer and business man can only appeal indirectly to Congress. Every member should feel himself in some degree our representative. To Mr. Blackburn of Ky., and Mr. Hunton, of Va., we are indebted for much intelligent labor in our behalf, but no two men however able or diligent, can spare the time from their other Congressional duties to master all the difficulties of our exceptional position. The House and the Senate should give more attention to District affairs, and in that save money to the United States and to our citizens. I would like to see special committees on the District to be composed, say, of Messrs. Wheeler, Blaine, Edmunds, Voorhees and Gordon of the Senate, and of Messrs. Randall, Blackburn, Stephens, Frye and Conger or of men of like standing of the house. The whole country would heartily agree to any proposal of such committees, and District people could never thereafter complain of unfair treatment.

HISTORY OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.

MILITARY RECORD.

With this issue we close the Military Record of Columbia and Montour counties. We have made it as full, complete and correct as our memoranda, recollections and authorities enabled us to make it. During its progress a few corrections and additional information have been furnished us, which have been put to their proper places and purposes. One or two persons have promised corrections not yet sent in. We beg to have them forwarded at once. Large bounties carried many of our citizens into outside organizations, and in such cases, no doubt many names have been overlooked and the record can be made perfect only by information vouchsafed to us by themselves or their friends.

We close this our History by giving what in these later and more stirring times is of necessity but little known; the names of "The Columbia Guards" who went from Danville, then in Columbia county to the Mexican War, more than thirty years ago. The young men of to-day were not born when that battle was fought, and there are but few of our readers who ever saw a list of the names. Not many of the persons whose names appear are now amongst the living; but of those who are we have applied to one Gen. William Brindle, to write a sketch of the campaigns of the "Guards" for insertion in the History of Columbia county, in the proposed volume, and which he has promised to prepare for it.

The following is the muster roll of those who left Danville, ninety-five in number, and who were sworn into the service of the United States for the war with Mexico. They were escorted as far as Pittsburg by a number of citizens, and cheered on their way with every demonstration of popular approval. They were placed in the Second Regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, commanded by Colonel Wynkoop, and afterwards by Colonel Geary, since Governor of Pennsylvania.

Daniel M'Gonigle, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, aged seventy-eight, challenges any man in the country to wrestle with him.

Edison at Work.

There is nowhere such another ingenious mind, but there is also nowhere such a worker. When in search of some special object he allows himself absolutely no rest. At Newark he mounted to the loft of his factory with five men, on the occasion of the apparent failure of the printing machine he had taken a contract to furnish, and declared he would never come down till it worked. It took sixty hours of continuous labor but it worked, and then he slept for thirty. The routine of his day is a routine of grand processes and ennobling ideas. Nowhere else probably would such a day be possible. There are not fortunes, if there were capacity, to carry on the business of pure scientific research on such a scale. His whole great establishment is occupied not in manufacturing, nor primarily in projects for profitable returns,—though these foolw,—but in new reflections, new combinations, in wresting from nature inch by inch the domain she would have kept hidden. He comes in the morning and reads his letters. He overlooks his men and the experiments of his assistants. The element of hazard enters into these somewhat. There are a great number in progress,—the action of chemicals upon various substances or upon each other, or the phenomena of substances subjected to the various forces at command. Strips of ivory for instance, in a certain oil in six weeks become transparent. A globule of mercury in water, then with a little potassium added, takes various shapes for the opposite poles of the battery, retires coquettishly or is attracted, forms in whirlpools, changes color, or becomes immobile. There is no use at once for these results, but they are recorded in voluminous note books. When the proper time comes they are borne in mind; some of them may form the connecting link in the chain of an invaluable discovery. Then perhaps he tests for the thousandth time his carbon telephone for new perfections, and then goes on carrying forward a step each of the works in progress, or becomes wholly engrossed, according to his mood, in one.

In spite of the fact that his retreat to Menlo Park was in good part to escape them, numerous visitors arrive. It is the Mecca of a continuous pilgrimage of scientists, reporters for the journals, and curiosity hunters. Yesterday a troop of one hundred and seventy-five persons brought by a person who had asked the privilege of presenting a few friends,—to morrow a special train of visitors from Boston is announced. He receives all affably, submitting himself and his inventions to be gazed at without reserve. One wonders, next to his phonograph, at his good humor.

'Still, I shall blow up somebody yet,' he says laughing. 'I am considering the idea of fixing a wire connecting with a battery that knocks over everyboy that touches the gate.'

He sits down at the phonograph, fixes a double mouth-piece to it and summons one of his assistants, while another places himself at an organ in the corner. They sing in two parts 'John Browns Body.' As the sonorous music rises and fills the long apartment, one gazes musingly yet with a secret thrill. It is like assisting at some strange, new rite,—a martial chant of rejoicing in the greatness of a new era full of sublime promise and the dissipation of mysteries,—November Scribner.

Farming Under the Sea.

The fact is not generally known, that within three hours' ride of Boston a large and profitable business has been carried on ever since 1848, along the sea-shore, and which is nothing more or less than 'farming under the sea.' Everywhere upon the coast of England may be found about ten feet below the water mark, the lichen known as carragen.—the Irish Moss' of commerce. It may be torn from the sunken rocks anywhere, and yet the little sea port of Scituate is almost the only place in the country where it is gathered and cured. This village is in the great centre of the moss business in the country and the entire Union draws its supplies from these beaches. Long rakes are used in tilling this marine farm, and it does not take long to fill the many dories that await the liches, torn from its salty rockey bed. The husbands and fathers gather the moss from the sea, and the wives and daughters prepare it for market. Soak it in water and it will melt away to jelly. Boil it with milk and a delicious white and creamy blanc mange is the result. The annual product is from ten to fifteen thousand barrels, and brings $50,000 into the town, which is shared by some hundred and fifty families. Its consumption in the manufacture of the larger beer is very large, and the entire beer interest in the country draws its supplies from the Scituate beachers, as the importation from Ireland has almost ceased. It is generally known that the moss, as an article of food, is called 'Sea Moss Farine.'—Congregationalist.

ST. NICHOLAS,

Scribner's Illustrated Magazine

FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

An Ideal Children's Magazine.

Messrs Scribner & Co., in 1873, began the publication of St. Nicholas, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs Mary Mapes Dodge as editor. Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the magazine can won the highest position. It has a monthly circulation of OVER 50,000 COPIES.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American. Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideas of best, because her ideal continually outruns it, and the magazine as swiftly follows after. To-day St. Nicholas stands

ALONE IN THE WORLD OF BOOKS:

The New York "Tribune" has said of it: "St. Nicholas has reached a higher platform, and commands for its service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries." The London "Literary World" says: "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of Scribner's press."

GOOD THINGS FOR 1879.

The arrangements for literary and art contributions for the new volume—the sixth—are complete, drawing from already favorite sources, as well as from promising new ones. Mr. Frank R. Stockton's new serial story for boys,

"A JOLLY FELLOWSHIP,"

Will run through the twelve monthly parts,—beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume,—and will be illustrated by James E. Kelly. The story is one of travel and adventure in Florida and the Bahamas. For the girls, a continued tale,

"HALF A DOZEN HOUSEKEEPERS,"

By Katharine D. Smith, with illustrations by Frederick Dielman, begins in the same number; and a fresh serial by Susan Coolidge, entitled "Eyebright," with plenty of pictures, will be commenced early in the volume. There will also be a continued fairy-tale called

"RUMPTY DUDGET'S TOWER,"

Written by Julian Hawthorne, and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks. About the other familiar features of St. Nicholas, the editor prefers a good-humored silence, content, perhaps, to let her five volumes already issued, preach sermons concerning the sixth in respect to short stories, pictures, poems, humor, instructive sketches, and the fun and work of "Jack-in-the-Pulpit," the "Over Little Folks" department, and the "letter-box," and "riddle-box."

Terms, $3.00 a year; 25 cents a Number.

Subscriptions received by the Publisher of this Paper, and by all Booksellers and Postmasters. Persons wishing to subscribe direct with the publishers, should write name, post office, county and state in full, and send with remittance in check, P. O. money order, or registered letter to

THE SUN FOR 1879.

The Sun will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

The Sun has been, is and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its convictions of duty. That is the only policy which an honest newspaper need have. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

The Sun is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is the Sun's idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

The Sun has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in '78, '77, or any year gone by. The Sun will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, The Sun does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly in the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the promptest, fullest, and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political views or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent administration and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy sentiment need of found in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of the varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of The Sun's work for 1879.

We want the means of making The Sun, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them to it.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily Sun, a four page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $6 50 a year; including the Sunday paper, an eight page sheet of 56 columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7 70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1 20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the Weekly Sun, on and after date, thirty-six cents, $1 20, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY,

Conducted by J. G. Holland.

The Handsomest Illustrated Magazine in the World.

The American edition of this periodical is now

MORE THAN 70,000 MONTHLY,

And it has a larger circulation in England than any other American magazine. Every number contains about one hundred and fifty pieces, and from fifty to seventy-five original wood-cut illustrations.

Announcements for 1878-9.

Among the attractions for the coming year are the following:

"Haworths," a serial novel, by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "That Lass o' Lowries." The scene of Mrs. Burnett's new novel is laid in Lancashire; the hero is young inventor of American birth. Mrs. Burnett's reading of story Mrs. Burnett has yet written. It will run through the numbers for the Monthly, beginning with November, 1878, and will be profusely illustrated.

F. D. LUNDAS, a series of articles by H. H. Boyesen, author of "Gunnar," "The Man who lost his Name," &c. In this romance, the author graphically describes the social life of Norse immigrants' life in a western settlement.

A STORY, by Geo. W. Cable, to be begun on the completion of "Dr. Sevier." This story will exhibit the study of social life in New Orleans about fifty years before the time of the Cession, and is written in a remarkable likeness to the present period of the city.

PORTRAITS OF AMERICAN POETS. This series (begun in August with the portrait of Bryant) will be continued, that of Longfellow appearing in November. These portraits are taken from life by Wyatt Eaton and engraved by T. Cole. They will be printed separately on tinted paper, as frontispieces of four different numbers. Associated sketches of the lives of the poets will accompany these portraits.

A NEW VIEW OF BIBLE. Mr. Herbert H. Smith, of Cornell University, a companion of the late Prof. Hartt, is now in Brazil with Mr. J. Wells Champney (the artist who accompanied Mr Edward King in his tour through "The great South"), preparing for Scribner a series of papers on the present condition—the cities, rivers and resources of the great empire of South America.

THE "JOHNNY CHESS" PAPERS, by an "ex-Confederate" soldier, will be among the earliest contributions to Scribner during the coming year. They are written and illustrated by Mr. Allen C. Redwood of Baltimore. The first of the series, "Johnny Reb at Play" appears in the November number.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated; and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Saltrheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow blotches or spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchia, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No one of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. The Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without interfering to the constitution, diet, or occupation, for Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not at gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Appetite not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in paper boxes or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
